JANUARY 1 TWENTY-ELEVEN

or 1/1/11, the first day of a new year. It's Marilyn and my wedding anniversary and where do I find myself, at 37,000 feet en route to Melbourne; not the most romantic wedding anniversary. The last few years we have spent the first few weeks in Australia and look forward to it again this time.

I guess the beginning of any year is a time of reflection as well as looking forward and as I do I find that last year consolidated some things in my heart that resulted in anticipation towards a new year. Thus the writing of this letter to those apostolically aligned with me and especially those who see me as a spiritual father. I will finish this communication from Australia.

I've been in Australia now for 3 weeks so had better conclude this update. The Nation here is suffering through the tragedy of the Queensland floods which have also now affected the rest of the Eastern states. It is so sad to see so many loose so much. One is continually aware of the need for the Kingdom's advance as the earth continues to groan waiting for the manifestation of the Sons of the Kingdom.

In reflection, the latter half of 2010 particularly was a time when I could say again, I am ruined and I am glad. I had put time aside in July for preparation and then the filming of 5 seminars that along with the Glorious Church teachings would make a resource of 58 sessions that would be released under the name of "The Advancing Kingdom". This exercise was a discipline and a source of joy as it made me look deep again into all that I had become fully persuaded of over the years. Although much of it is taught in seed form, nevertheless it is an overview of what the Lord has made real to me. Near the end of the filming word came through that Marilyn's dad had been hospitalized and his death closely followed. I finished the filming late one evening and left early the next day, with Marilyn, for Australia, to be with family and for Dad's funeral. It certainly had been a year of mixed emotions with 3 trips to Australia linked with death and as the theme of our 2010 COTN conferences stated it certainly was one of Crossover.

"I was gripped with the thought, this really does work!"

From Mid September through December a series of events took place that in hindsight concluded a transition season in my life. This final chapter started at a dinner in Richmond at which I set in Jason and Don as the steering team for the mid Atlantic with Jason being the set man in the leadership. It is a wonderful thrill to release spiritual sons into the next step of their development. The following week we were at our USA Makarios cluster time in Latham, NY and had the joy of setting Mike Morgan in as the point man for our cluster life in the USA. Earlier in the year

I had a similar privilege with Mike Davies in the UK as well as Craig Kirkby in the Australasian region.

At the time in Latham a panel for questions and answers was formed. The Speakers who had shared except me were on the panel and were asked this question. "All of you on this panel, in some measure, walk in a son relationship to Tony. What does this mean to you?" My first thought was, this could be embarrassing, but as each of the men shared from their heart something deep in my heart was happening. I was gripped with the thought, this really does work! It sounds simple, but for me, it was quite profound and sealed so much in my heart.

I traveled straight from this time to St. Albans near London to meet with an apostolic gathering of leaders then back to Richmond for a weekend before traveling on to Adelaide, Australia for another leadership gathering; from there to Brisbane Australia to meet with our cluster leaders and then on to Wales to meet with another group of leaders before going to Holland for our COTN conference. It was a month of un-packaging the subject of advancing the kingdom through Fathers and sons. In November I had the privilege of sharing at the international coalition of apostles gathering in Texas on the subject of raising spiritual sons. Through these concentrated weeks I realized that God had planted me solidly into my priorities for this season of my life.

In the first week in December I had the joy of teaching the father, fathers and fathering seminar around the Lake of Zürich in Switzerland. For me it was like the icing on the cake for what had been weeks of consolidation. It was truly a great way to end the year.

I want to thank you all your support during last year and for the strength Marilyn and I have felt from that support. Many of you have gone the extra mile in walking out sonship. I look forward to seeing most of you over the next few weeks and enlarging on what I have shared in this update.

We both believe for this to be a wonderful year for you.

Wellington Boon, a wonderful African American apostolic leader in the USA, received a scripture from God for 2011. After reading it I also sensed it was a word for me and all of you. The scripture is 1st. Corinthians 16:9 KJV

"For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and (there are) many adversaries." The Amplified version says "For a wide door of opportunity for effectual (service) has opened to me (there, a great and promising one), and (there are) many adversaries."

Seize this day! But be alert!
